Conductor David Meacock says: "VERDI's dramatic Requiem is guaranteed to give you a great sing, so bring your Ricordi or any other edition of the Vocal Score and enjoy this masterpiece. I can remember literally jumping out of my skin the first time I heard the Dies irae as a young boy. In 2000, I conducted the premiere of my reduced orchestration enabling choirs of about 80 to perform it. It has since been performed regularly throughout the UK and was premiered in the USA in 2007. So perhaps you might come along to sing it for the first time with a view to persuading your similar size choir to do it, or get some more practice in for a forthcoming performance, or simply to enjoy reacquainting yourself with an old friend – and pick up some tips on how to enjoy those high notes without killing your voice. Once again we'll be accompanied by Tim Roe.

Messiah 4 Grenfell and subsequent A40 Choir sing-in events here, at Holy Trinity SW7 have raised in excess of £6K to help survivors via the Family Action Charity – see www.family-action.org.uk for further information.

Please ease event organisation by booking tickets in advance, via www.ticketsource.co.uk/a40choir as early as possible, preferably before 31st March - email tickets save postage both ways. Additionally, please invite your friends to join in and also sing-in FAURÉ Requiem & Pavane, or listen-in. Look out for future events via www.a40music.com!"
