Conductor David Meacock says: “Messiah 4 Grenfell and subsequent A40 Choir sing-in events have raised in excess of £6K to help survivors via the Family Action Charity – see www.family-action.org.uk for further information.

This event, with accompanist Tim Roe, has been organised on the basis of Messiah 4 Grenfell participants’ survey answers. So, bring any edition of the Requiem, preferably marked up with the musical hints on the Singers’ Pre-rehearsal Sheet - from www.a40music.com website - and enjoy singing to contribute to supporting the surviving victims of the Grenfell fire.

The evening concert will also feature various piano solo pieces (Chopin, Debussy & Ravel) and the original version of Fauré’s Pavane pour une infante défunte – now better known in the later orchestral version - for piano solo with a fairly easy choral obligato, which can be downloaded from the website.

Please ease event organisation by booking tickets in advance, via www.ticketsource.co.uk/a40choir as early as possible, preferably before 30th April - email tickets save postage both ways. Scan this code with your mobile’s QR code App to go straight there. . .

Please invite your friends to also sing-in FAURÉ Requiem & Pavane, or listen-in, and look out for future events via www.a40music.com“
