Conductor David Meacock says: “Messiah 4 Grenfell in October ‘17 and subsequent A40 Choir sing-in events have raised in excess of £6.5K to help survivors via the Family Action Charity – see www.family-action.org.uk for further information.

Bring your Novello edition, preferably marked up with the musical hints on the Singers’ Pre-rehearsal Sheet and free download of the Pavane – both from the www.a40music.com website - and enjoy a really good sing supported by accompanist Tim Roe.

Please ease event organisation by booking tickets in advance, via www.ticketsource.co.uk/a40choir as early as possible, preferably before 9th February - email tickets save postage both ways. Scan this code with your mobile’s QR code App to go straight there. . .

As with the last event, in the hope of making this event as accessible as possible, rather than including a charitable contribution in the ticket price, everyone will be invited to make a contribution as they see fit at the concert in the hope that lower ticket prices will attract more people and so actually raise more for the Grenfell Fire survivors.

Please invite your friends to also sing-in Requiem 4 Grenfell ‘20, or listen-in, and look out for future events via www.a40music.com“
